

---

You will discover career opportunities available to veterinarians within the fast-paced field of veterinary medicine and learn about applying to a college of veterinary medicine. You will also be introduced to campus resources available to students and learn about basic personal finance.

Prerequisite: Current standing as a student in the On-Campus Veterinary Nursing Program. You will practice training dogs basic obedience commands and will be introduced to showmanship skills.

---